

Early Career Academics (ECAPS)

Professional Development Seminar Series

SEMINAR 3:

Collecting the evidence & impact of your teaching

ONLINE EVENT

1PM - 3PM
6 SEPT 2022 (AEST)

FREE FOR ALL
CAPHIA MEMBERS

OVERVIEW

Purpose: to showcase practical strategies used by more experienced educators to measure the impact of their teaching.

Learning Outcomes: Speakers will demonstrate how to select the right indicators, how to ethically collect student data, how to analyse the data, how to integrate education research into teaching, and who to collaborate with. There is a focus on strategies that are highly transferable across student cohorts, public health areas of teaching, and institutions.

Takeaways: 3 x top tips to try in your practice

DISCUSSION TOPICS

Teaching Impact Data

This webinar builds on the first two, and connects the dots between engagement, assessment and feedback strategies and how to demonstrate teaching impact.

Agenda

1pm - 2pm

Presentations

Panel Question & Answer

2pm - 3pm (optional)

Mini-workshops to apply strategies to your practice

PRESENTERS:

A. PROF. KATHERINE BALDOCK
University of South Australia

DR. KRIS MCBAIN-RIGG
James Cook University

REGISTRATION:

caphia.com.au

Participants of all four ECAPS seminars are eligible for a certificate of attendance