

CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

Global Network for Academic Public Health Participation in Sessions During the World Congress on Public Health May 4 & 5, 2023 Rome, Italy

Background

The Global Network for Academic Public Health (GNAPH) is organizing a series of sessions for the World Congress on Public Health, to be held May 2-6, 2023, in Rome, Italy. Two sessions have opportunities for presentations from members of the associations that make up the GNAPH. This call is for expressions of interest in giving a presentation as part of one or both of these sessions.

Eligibility

Leaders, faculty, and staff from academic public health institutions that are members of the seven associations that make up the GNAPH are eligible to express interest. These associations are:

- Alianza Latinoamericana de Salud Global (ALASAG)
- Asia-Pacific Academic Consortium for Public Health (APACPH)
- Association of Schools of Public Health in Africa (ASPHA)
- Association of Schools of Public Health in the European Region (ASPHER)
- Association of Schools and Programs of Public Health (ASPPH)
- Council of Academic Public Health Institutions Australasia (CAPHIA)
- South-East Asia Public Health Education Institutions Network (SEAPHEIN)

All presentations must be held in person, therefore only those who are able to register and attend the meeting in person are eligible. Information about attending the Congress can be found on their website.

Opportunities

Session A: Innovations in Academic Public Health: Where Do We Go Next?
Date: Thursday, May 4, 2023
Time: 17:30-19:30 CET
Length: 10-15 minute presentation
Description: This session is an opportunity to present innovative approaches to teaching public health. Presentations responding to the Congress theme “A World in Turmoil: Opportunities to Focus on the Public’s Health” are encouraged.
